4. Role and responsibilities of the Managing Director & CEO

- 4.1 The Board has delegated the management of the BOQ Group's day-to-day business and operations and administration to the Managing Director & CEO, subject to the specified delegations of authority approved by the Board. Any matters or transactions outside of the delegations of authority must be referred to the appropriate BOQ Group Board or Committee for approval.

4.2 The Managing Director & CEO's responsibilities include, among other matters:

- (a) developing strategy for the BOQ Group for review and approval by the Board and achieving the planned results for the BOQ Group;
- (b) implementing and overseeing the strategic, financial and operational plans of the BOQ Group;
- (c) seeking to ensure the ongoing development, implementation and oversight of the BOQ Group's risk management and internal controls frameworks;
- (d) instilling and reinforcing BOQ's Values throughout the organisation through people leadership and culture while operating within those values, BOQ's Code of Conduct, and the budget and risk appetite set by the Board;
- (e) assessing reputational consequences of decisions made or actions taken;
- (f) seeking to ensure the Board is provided with relevant, accurate and clear information in a timely manner to enable the Board to carry out its responsibilities; and
- (g) seeking to ensure all relevant information affecting the BOQ Group is reported or escalated to the Board or relevant Board Committee.

5. Board composition

- 5.1 The size of the Board will be determined in accordance with BOQ's Constitution and will include at least five directors (as required by APRA Prudential Standard CPS 510 - Governance).
- 5.2 The Board will be an appropriate size and collectively possess the skills, experience, commitment and knowledge necessary to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
- 5.3 The Board will comprise a majority of independent Non-Executive Directors. In addition, a majority of the Directors must be ordinarily resident in Australia.

6. Role and responsibilities of the Chair

- 6.1 The Board will appoint the Chair. The Chair must be an independent Non-Executive Director and must not have been the CEO or Managing Director of BOQ in the previous three years.
- 6.2 The Chair's principal responsibility is to provide leadership to the Board so that the Board may fulfil its obligations under this Charter.
- 6.3 The Chair also has specific responsibilities to:
 - (a) chair Board meetings and facilitate the effective contribution of all Directors;
 - (b) represent the views of the Board and BOQ to stakeholders including shareholders, customers, employees, regulators and the community, and to seek to ensure the Board understands the views of key stakeholders;
 - (c) on behalf of the Board, maintain and manage the working relationship with the Managing Director & CEO and senior management;

- (d) promote an environment of trust, respect and openness to facilitate consultative and constructive relations between Directors and between the Board and management;
- (e) work with the Managing Director & CEO in relation to the Board's requirements for information on BOQ Group's operations to enable the Board to perform its responsibilities;
- (f) be available to meet with APRA on request; and
- (g) set the Board agenda for each meeting in consultation with the Managing Director & CEO and Company Secretary and oversee the conduct of meetings so that adequate time is available for discussion of all agenda items, including prioritising the most significant items and strategic issues.

7. Board Committees

- 7.1 The Board may from time to time establish committees as it considers necessary or appropriate to assist in carrying out its responsibilities as set out in the relevant charter.
- 7.2 The standing committees of the Board are:
 - (a) Audit Committee;
 - (b) Risk Committee;
 - (c) People, Culture and Remuneration Committee;

- 1.1 The Committees will review matters on behalf of the Board and as determined by the relevant Charter:
 - (a) refer matters to the Board for decision, with a recommendation from the Committee; or
 - (b) determine matters (where the Committee acts with delegated authority), which the Committee then reports to the Board.
- 7.3 The Committees will have sufficient resources, as determined by the Committee, to run effectively.
- 7.4 The Board will approve the charters of each Board Committee, which will set out the role, authority, responsibilities, composition and administration of each Committee.
- 7.5 The Board may also delegate specific functions to ad hoc Committees on an "as needs" basis.

8. Company Secretary

- 8.1 The Company Secretary is directly accountable to the Board, through the Chair, on matters relating to the proper functioning of the Board.

8.2 The Company Secretary's role includes:

- (a) advising the Board and its Committees on governance matters and processes;
- (b) monitoring that Board and Committee policy and procedures are followed;
- (c) coordinating all Board business including meetings, agendas, Board and Committee papers and minutes, communications with regulatory bodies, ASX and all statutory and other filings; and
- (d) helping to organise and facilitate the induction and professional development of Directors.

8.3 The appointment and removal of a Company Secretary will be subject to Board approval.

8.4 All Directors have unfettered access to the Company Secretary and the Company Secretary has unfettered access to Directors.

9. Meetings

9.1 The Board will meet a minimum of 8 times per financial year and otherwise as often as is necessary to fulfil its responsibilities.

9.2 A Director may call a Board meeting at any time. On request of any Director, the Company Secretary must call a meeting of the Directors.

9.3 The agenda for Board meetings will:

- (a) be prepared by the Company Secretary and approved by the Chair; and
- (b) will include items required by this Charter and any other items requested by Directors or management and approved by the Chair.

9.4 Board meeting papers should be distributed to Directors prior to each meeting in sufficient time to enable Directors to read the papers and properly prepare for the meeting. The Company Secretary will endeavour to ensure that, to extent practicable, Board meeting papers are distributed at least 7 days prior to each meeting.

9.5 A quorum will be three directors who, at any given time, are able to vote on the particular matter before the meeting at that time.

9.6 A majority of Directors present and eligible to vote at all Board meetings must be Non-Executive Directors.

9.7 The Non-Executive Directors shall be available to meet for private discussion on matters relating to the oversight of the management of BOQ.

9.8 Directors of the Board will be available to meet with APRA and other regulators on request.

10. Director independence

10.1 The Board must assess, at least annually, the independence of each Director.

10.2 When assessing the independent status of a Director, the Board will have regard to BOQ's Policy on Independence of Directors.

11. Board performance

- 11.1 The Board will review the performance, including the efficiency and effectiveness, of the Board, its Committees and each Director at least annually in accordance with its Board Performance Review & Renewal Policy.

12. Access to management

- 12.1 The Board and each Committee has free and unfettered access to senior management and may make any enquiries to fulfil its responsibilities. In addition to regular presentations by senior management to Board meetings, Directors may seek briefings from senior management on specific matters.

13. Access to independent professional advice

- 13.1 Directors, both collectively and individually, may seek independent professional advice in connection with fulfilling their responsibilities as Directors at BOQ's expense, subject to obtaining the prior written approval of the Chair (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld).

14. Review

- 14.1 This Charter will be reviewed as required and at least annually.
