Section 4 – Authority

I/we the customer/s authorise the above Authorised Representative to act as my/our agent to:

- Seek and exchange personal information (including information related to credit, financial affairs or sensitive information about me and my accounts) from Bank of Queensland;
- Negotiate and enter into arrangements that are binding on me/us related to the account/s; and
- Act on my/our behalf until this authority is revoked.

I/we the customer/s understand that:

- Standard account notification (including account statements and other prescribed notices) can still be sent to me/us by Bank of Queensland;
- If an agreement is made, my/our written consent may be required;
- Bank of Queensland will rely on the information provided and the declaration and privacy consent previously provided by me/us to Bank of Queensland;
- Bank of Queensland will communicate with the above Authorised Representative via phone, letter, email or other forms of communication as agreed and which may be required, unless:
- we specifically requested the Bank of Queensland to have direct communications with us;
- the Bank of Queensland reasonably believes that above Authorised Representative is acting against our best interests;
- the Bank of Queensland reasonably believes that above Authorised Representative is acting in a deceptive or misleading manner with us and/or the Bank of Queensland; or
- at the time the Bank of Queensland is dealing with your complaint above Authorised Representative has been excluded by the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) from representing complainants in relation to any complaint lodged by us with AFCA; and
